MARRIED YANKEE GIRL

Eauclaire, Wis., Feb. 24.-The pianeforte of Mary E. Plummer, who played on a Wisconsin farm more than haif a century ago and who is now Madame Clemenceau, gave Eauclaire added interest in the welfare of "the tiger" George Clemenceau. .

A number of old settlers here remember the little girl who came West with her father, Dr. Plummer, a Bristol, N. Y., dentist, in search of health. A wealthy uncle took her East at 15. At a Stamford, Conn., seminary she studied French under young Clem- z enceau, who had come to America in 1865. They were married in 1869.

At the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian War in 1870 they hastened to Paris. Clemenceau's political actirities began from the day he arrived. Three children were born to the llemenceaus-Madeline, Theresa and Michel. All took active part in the 160 acres, 320 acres and 640 acres.

Madame Clemenceau has visited the United States since her marriage. New Southland Hotel South Royal St. Phone 60
